OVERVIEW

Mathika Perera is a corporate senior associate based in Melbourne focusing on mergers and acquisitions and equity capital markets. Her experience includes advising on both buy-side and sell-side matters, managing due diligence processes and drafting/negotiating transaction documents. She has also acted on various IPOs and secondary capital raisings as well as attending to general corporate advisory matters. With over six years' experience, she has worked in both Melbourne and London.

Having worked at law firms and in-house, Mathika has an understanding of clients' commercial objectives and the pressures that they face. She has a flair for engaging with clients and works well in a fast paced transactional environment

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Mathika first worked as a lawyer in mergers and acquisition and equity capital markets at a boutique law firm in Melbourne for three years. She then gained in-house experience as legal counsel at an ASX-listed media business, and more recently, at Google as a consultant lawyer in London. Her work at Google included commercial contracting within the Google Ads and Google Devices business units across Europe, Middle East and Africa.
