OVERVIEW

Emaan Jaberi is an associate at the firm's Seattle office. He is a member of the Complex Commercial Litigation and Disputes practice group. Emaan's practice focuses on litigation at the trial and appellate level in a variety of matters including commercial contract disputes, public bidding, shareholder disputes, and internal investigations.

In addition, Emaan maintains an active pro bono practice representing individuals seeking asylum.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Before attending law school, Emaan was a volunteer law clerk with the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington, and an intern with the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office Economic Crimes Unit.

During law school, Emaan was a summer associate at K&L Gates in both 2018 and 2019. He also practiced in the University of Michigan Law School Civil-Criminal Litigation Clinic, providing low income clients legal representation in a variety of matters from defending eviction actions to contesting debt collection.

After law school, Emaan served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Justice Susan Owens of the Washington State Supreme Court where he researched legal issues, drafted bench memos, opinions, and dissents in a variety of civil and criminal cases.
