OVERVIEW

Natalie Chow is an associate in the firm. Her area of practice involves capital markets and mergers and acquisitions. Natalie has assisted in a number of equity capital markets transactions representing issuers in IPOs on Nasdaq and HKEx and listings of Swiss global depository receipts (GDR) via the China-Switzerland Stock Connect and other general corporate matters. She has also assisted in cross-border mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, and transactional and non-transactional regulatory advice. Natalie has also represented a number of Main Board issuers in their annual retainer matters relating to post-listing compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules. She speaks English, Mandarin, and Cantonese.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Natalie served as a vacation student within the insurance litigation practice at an international law firm. Through this role she conducted research on various issues related to insurance law and personal injury law, and attended client conferences alongside counsel.
