OVERVIEW

Krishna Hegde is an associate in the firm's Commercial Disputes practice group. He maintains a broad-based practice with an emphasis on insurance recovery and corporate transactional matters, including cross-border disputes. He is experienced in all stages of litigation, from drafting initial pleadings to preparing for and helping conduct trial.

Recent work includes:

- Taking trial testimony of a 30(b)(6) witness in federal court on corporate separation and tax exemption matters.
- Drafting oppositions to a joint summary judgment motion and motion for judgment on the pleadings—both of which were successfully opposed, in a Delaware Court of Chancery securities litigation matter.
- Managing document discovery, production and analysis on a wide-ranging commercial dispute involving contractual breach and antitrust issues.

Krishna has also assisted clients in arbitrations and other alternative dispute resolution contexts, helping them avoid litigation while securing favorable outcomes.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

A graduate of Harvard Law School and Columbia University, Krishna clerked between 2021-2022 at the US Court of Federal Claims in Washington, DC, before returning to Pittsburgh.
