OVERVIEW

Jamie Robinson is an associate and a member of the Asset Management and Investment Funds practice. Jamie's practice is primarily focused on private funds across a broad range of asset classes, including private equity, infrastructure, venture capital, private debt, real estate, and secondaries. Jamie regularly advises institutional and emerging managers on fund organization and management matters as well as seed capital arrangements. Jamie also counsels limited partner clients, including public pension plans, on their private market investments.

Jamie provides regulatory compliance advice to SEC-registered investment adviser clients on a variety of issues impacting their operations, including policies and procedures, marketing materials, and regulatory filings.

In addition to her firm experience, Jamie spent time in-house as counsel and deputy chief compliance officer to an established SEC-registered private funds manager. Jamie oversaw all compliance functions and processes across the firm and advised on day-to-day legal, compliance, and private fund-related matters.
