

Brendan Lawlor

Government Affairs Analyst

Washington, DC
+1.202.778.9126

Brendan.Lawlor@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Brendan Lawlor is a government affairs analyst in the firm's Public Policy and Law practice group, working primarily on tax and energy policy issues.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Brendan was a government affairs fellow in the firm's Public Policy and Law practice, where he worked on various projects to advance client needs, with a focus on energy, environmental, and maritime policy issues. Before this, he was a legislative fellow with the Office of US Representative Conor Lamb (D-PA-17), where he drafted legislative research memos, constituent letter responses, and policy briefing memos. Brendan also has had roles in the Pennsylvania state legislature, the maritime consulting industry, and the international non-profit sector.

EDUCATION

- Masters of Public Policy, American University, 2024
- B.A., American University, 2023

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP POWERED BY HUB

- 31 August 2026, Environmental Justice Update
- 3 March 2026, Treasury Proposes Clean Fuel Production Credit Guidance
- 2 December 2025 , Environmental Justice Update
- 23 July 2025, Navigating the One Big Beautiful Bill Act: Critical Updates to Clean Energy Credits
- 5 May 2025, Environmental Justice Update
- 4 November 2024, BOEM, DOD Sign MoU on Advancing Offshore Wind Development

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Public Policy and Law
- US Congressional Investigations