

Laura Trehwela

Associate

London
+44.20.7360.6302

Laura.Trehwela@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Laura Trehwela is an associate in the firm's Real Estate practice. She advises on complex development and corporate occupier matters, representing a variety of clients including institutional, international and private investors. She handles a wide range of real estate transactions, including acquisition, disposal, development, letting, and management across various asset classes. Laura's practice extends to advising on real estate aspects for high value corporate acquisitions and real estate finance transactions.

Laura has significant experience across various asset classes including private equity firms, corporate occupiers, hotel operators, developers and large international companies. Laura joined the firm as an associate in 2025 from another major international law firm.

EDUCATION

- Legal Practice Course, University of Law
- LL.B., University of Westminster

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Real Estate

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Acting on a £46 million disposal of a multilet office building in Farringdon, London.
- Advised a UK institutional investor on the disposal of a large multilet retail park in Manchester.
- Advised on the real estate aspects of a real estate debt fund in relation to acquisition and development finance facilities totaling circa £92 million, made available to a Jersey-based borrower and secured against a business park in England.
- Acting on the disposal of an office block and redevelopment opportunity in Barbican, London.

- Advised an international private equity real estate firm on e-charging connections for its UK hotel portfolio.
- Acted for a private equity investment and fund management firm on a multimillion acquisition of residential properties across the United Kingdom.
- Acted for Park Holidays UK Ltd on the US$1.3 billion disposal of its 40 owned and operated parks and an additional two managed parks to Sun Communities (NYSE: SUI).