OVERVIEW

Alice MacHenry is a trainee solicitor in the firm's Corporate group. She previously gained experience in the Antitrust, Competition, and Trade Regulation and Intellectual Property practice groups.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Alice was an account manager at a London-based legal tech startup, where she managed the full sales cycle, supported the company's expansion into the United States, and oversaw relationships with key clients across the United Kingdom, Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and North America.

Alice also completed a summer internship at a leading Irish law firm where she focused on Litigation and Commercial Real Estate. During her exchange year at the University of Sydney, Alice delivered pro-bono advice to non-profit organisations and social enterprises as a consultant for 180 Degrees Consulting, the world's largest university-based consultancy.
