

Richard W. Burnett

Associate

New York
+1.212.536.4098

Richard.Burnett@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Richard Burnett is an associate in the firm's Corporate practice. Prior to joining the firm, Richard was a student trainee in the office of the executive staff at the US Securities and Exchange Commission, where he conducted in-depth research on regulatory policies and frameworks within the financial industry, with a focus on blockchain technology and cryptocurrency. Richard also assisted in drafting reports, presentations, and briefings specifically addressing regulatory challenges and opportunities arising from blockchain and cryptocurrency advancements.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Howard University School of Law
-

ADMISSIONS

- Bar of New York

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP POWERED BY HUB

- 21 April 2026, United States: Form PFffft: SEC and CFTC Propose Rolling Back Reporting Burdens for Private Fund Managers

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Asset Management and Investment Funds