

Tat Rui Too

Associate

Singapore
+65.6713.0291

Tatrui.Too@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Tat Rui Too is an associate in the firm's International Arbitration practice group. He has experience in disputes from sectors including energy, technology, and complex cross-border shareholder disputes. He has also acted in contract and tort disputes which engaged issues of arbitrability and insolvency.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Tat Rui trained at an international arbitration practice in Singapore and was later an associate at a Singapore-based law firm where he focused his practice on arbitration, civil litigation, and contentious insolvency matters.

EDUCATION

- LL.B., University College London, 2022

ADMISSIONS

- Advocate and Solicitor, Supreme Court of Singapore

LANGUAGES

- Chinese (Mandarin)
- English

AREAS OF FOCUS

- International Arbitration

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Acted in a complex cross-border (Hong Kong, China, and various Southeast Asian parties) multiparty shareholder dispute which raised allegations of (among other things) breach of contract and conspiracy, and engaging issues of arbitrability and insolvency.
- Involved in an employment matter concerning breach of confidentiality and non-compete/non-solicit clauses under the employment agreement.
- Acted for a provisional liquidator and subsequently appointed liquidator in winding up proceedings.
- Acted for successful defendant in a matter concerning breach of confidentiality and lawful conspiracy.
- Acted for a plaintiff in minority oppression proceedings.
- Involved in an arbitration regarding a breakdown in a joint venture with a major brewery business under the SIAC Rules 2016.
- Involved in an arbitration concerning disputed oil trades under the emergency arbitrator procedure of the SIAC Rules 2016.
- Involved in an arbitration concerning a TMT dispute under the expedited procedure of the SIAC Rules 2016.