OVERVIEW

Vicki Wu is an associate and member of the Tax practice group. She advises private equity sponsors, investment funds, institutional investors, and corporate clients on US federal income tax and international tax matters. Her practice includes the tax aspects of domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, private fund formation and structuring, strategic investments, joint ventures, and other complex business transactions. She also advises clients on partnership taxation, fund investments and secondary transactions, withholding and reporting requirements, FATCA compliance, and other tax issues arising in domestic and international investments.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Vicki worked on tax and transactional matters in academic, professional services, and government settings, including research involving federal income tax issues and cross-border transactions.
