

Lochie Gibson

Lawyer

Perth

+61.8.9216.0934

Lochie.Gibson@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Lochie Gibson is a lawyer in the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice. He advises on complex commercial disputes, regulatory litigation and arbitration-adjacent matters, with experience in Supreme Court proceedings, shareholder oppression claims, urgent interlocutory applications and cross-border disputes involving coordination with interstate and international teams.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Lochie first worked at the firm as part of the Paralegal program where he worked primarily in the Commercial Litigation and Dispute Resolution group. He then joined the Graduate Program in 2025 and completed rotations across Commercial Litigation and Dispute Resolution, Real Estate and Corporate M&A, developing experience in contentious matters, regulatory advice and transactional support.

EDUCATION

- B.A., Curtin University, 2024
- LL.B., Curtin University, 2024

ADMISSIONS

- Supreme Court of Western Australia

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Commercial Disputes

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Acted for a mining and resources company in Supreme Court proceedings concerning contractual disputes arising from a bilingual share sale arrangement, including drafting pleadings, correspondence and settlement documents, as well as advising on contractual interpretation arguments.
- Advised a major Australian financial institution in connection with responses to statutory notices issued by a regulator, including large-scale document review to conduct legal professional privilege assessments.
- Advised a national sporting organisation on a significant contractual dispute with venue operators, including urgent advice on contractual enforcement options and potential injunctive relief in connection with live concert events.
- Acted for a company director in Supreme Court proceedings seeking relief under the Corporations Act alleging shareholder oppression, including claims concerning exclusion from management and misuse of company assets, and which involved urgent interlocutory applications to prevent further oppressive conduct.
- Advised a state government emergency services agency on governance and conflict of interest matters, including preparation of risk matrices and decision-making frameworks to mitigate dispute exposure.
- Acted for an ASX-listed company in a commercial dispute arising from an alleged breach of a capital raising mandate, including pre-litigation strategy and facilitation of a settlement prior to commencement of formal proceedings.