OVERVIEW

Crystal Kwok is a counsel in the firm's Corporate practice and Capital Markets practice group. Crystal has over 10 years of experience with a strong focus on initial public offerings (including A+H IPOs and Chapter 18A biotech IPOs), secondary offerings, public takeovers, regulatory compliance and commercial matters. Her experience covers various industries, including robotic technology, AI-native technology, new energy vehicles, pharmaceuticals and biotechnology, energy and minerals, real estate, financial service, and entertainment. Crystal advised the first H-share company with a weighted voting rights (WVR) structure listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on compliance and corporate governance matters.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Crystal served in senior associate roles at various law firms. She has also worked at a blue-chip listed company engaged in real estate in China and Hong Kong as its in-house senior legal counsel, where she advised the board of directors and C-suite management on Hong Kong Listing Rules and Takeovers Code related matters and corporate governance. She has rich experience advising ultra-high net worth individuals and families in corporate and regulatory matters.
