OVERVIEW

Donald Slater is an associate and a member of the Mergers and Acquisitions practice group. Prior to joining the firm, Donald was an associate at a national law firm where he focused his practice on corporate work, advising private equity sponsors and public companies on buy-side and sell-side mergers and acquisitions. He represented issuers and investors in private offerings of debt and equity securities, including preferred stock, convertible notes, and warrants, and drafted and negotiated general commercial agreements for corporate clients, including NDAs, commercial contracts, licensing agreements, and other operational agreements.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to his previous role, Donald was an associate at a midsize law firm where he conducted extensive research and drafted memoranda on issues relating to mergers and acquisitions, cannabis law, securities law, venture capital transactions, and general corporate governance matters.
