OVERVIEW

Kyle McLester is an associate and member of the Insurance Recovery and Counseling practice group. Prior to joining the firm, Kyle served as an associate at a New Jersey based law firm, where he represented public entities and employers in various labor and employment matters. His experience includes drafting dispositive motions and post-arbitration briefs, managing phases of discovery, and supporting trial preparation and proceedings. He also has significant experience conducting legal research and drafting memoranda on employment-related issues and advising clients on compliance with federal and state laws, including the ADA and Title VII.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Kyle was an associate at a New Jersey based law firm, where he represented and advised public entities and employers in various labor and employment matters.

Kyle also previously served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Veronica Allende, J.S.C., where he drafted opinions and orders on a high-volume, multi-county civil motion docket covering various civil matters. In this role, Kyle also successfully mediated numerous Special Civil Part disputes and facilitated amicable settlements between the parties.
