OVERVIEW

Kathleen (Kathy) McMonagle is a senior associate in the firm's Asset Management and Investment Funds practice. She advises clients on the structuring, authorization and ongoing regulation of both regulated and unregulated investment vehicles, with a particular focus on UCITS and AIFs. Kathy also advises on the establishment, ongoing operation and regulation of UCITS management companies and AIFMs, supporting clients across multiple jurisdictions.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Kathy worked for a number of years at a top-tier domestic law firm in Dublin that included a secondment at the Dublin branch of an international bank. Kathy also spent a decade in Luxembourg, initially with a global asset manager and later practicing as an investment funds and regulatory lawyer at international law firms.
