

Andrew Choi

Senior Associate

Sydney
+61.2.9513.2469

Andrew.Choi@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Andrew Choi is a senior associate in the Asset Management and Investment Funds practice group. He advises clients on structuring and raising capital for both retail and wholesale investment funds across a broad range of asset classes, including real estate, private equity, private credit and equities.

Andrew also advises on financial services regulation, including Australian Financial Services Licence matters, product disclosure statements, design and distribution obligations, reportable situations and the regulation of financial product advice.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Andrew was an Associate at an international law firm in the Cayman Islands, a Senior Associate at a national law firm in Australia and a Senior Lawyer at the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Political, Economic and Social Sciences, University of Sydney, 2018
- LL.B., University of Sydney, 2018

ADMISSIONS

- Grand Court of the Cayman Islands
- Supreme Court of New South Wales

LANGUAGES

- English
- Korean

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Asset Management and Investment Funds
- Exchange-Traded Products

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Advised an investment management services company on the formation of private equity, infrastructure and private credit funds, including the Oaktree Strategic Credit Fund (AUD), West Street Private Equity Fund, West Street Private Credit Fund, West Street Private Equity Fund, West Street Private Infrastructure Fund, T.Rowe Price OHA Flexible Credit Income Fund and the Blue Owl Credit Income Fund AUT.
- Acted for an ASX-listed real estate manager on a joint venture and capital partnership structure for the acquisition and development of self-storage sites in Australia.
- Advised an investment services company specialising in ETFs on the formation of the company Bitcoin ETF and Global Defence ETF.
- Advised a global alternative asset manager on various ‘secondaries’ transactions and restructures of closed-end real estate and private credit funds.
- Acted for an investment platform on the establishment of the company Accumulate Fund, a registered scheme with a dual unit class structure designed to provide income priority and capital protection.
- Advised a real estate investment manager on the establishment of two funds for the acquisition and development of self-storage sites in Australia.
- Advised an investment services company on various regulatory matters, including the reportable situations regime and compliance plans.