OVERVIEW

Michael Lynch is an associate and a member of the Commercial Disputes practice group. Prior to joining the firm, Michael was an associate at a Newark-based law firm where he focused his practice on business and environmental litigation. Through this role he prepared pleadings, motions, and discovery demands in a wide range of commercial litigation matters, including business disputes, breach of contract, construction disputes, securities matters, employment disputes, environmental matters, and post-judgment recovery. He also managed litigations from initial pleadings through settlement and was a trial team member on a multi-billion-dollar natural resource damages matter.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to his work as an associate, Michael was a judicial clerk to the Honorable Lisa Rose, J.A.D., of the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division. During his time in law school, Michael was named to the Rutgers University Law Review, serving as an Articles Editor. He additionally was a member of the Rutgers Law School Moot Court Board.
