OVERVIEW

Kyle Kennett is an associate in the firm's Mass Tort and Product Liability practice groups. His experience includes defending clients in complex product liability and mass tort litigation in state courts throughout New Jersey and New York. Prior to joining the firm, Kyle was an associate attorney with a New Jersey-based litigation firm where he gained experience managing fact investigations, developing case strategies, coordinating discovery, and handling depositions of plaintiffs and fact witnesses. He has drafted settlement analysis documents, dispositive motions, and motions in limine aimed at achieving favorable outcomes and mitigating client exposure. Additionally, he served as lead associate on approximately 75 cases and regularly collaborated with national coordinating counsel, clients, and experts while supervising junior attorneys.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Before entering private practice, Kyle served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Thomas M. Moore in the Superior Court of New Jersey. As a law clerk, he assisted with case management, reviewed motions, drafted legal memoranda and orders, conducted legal research, and attended motion hearings involving a broad range of civil litigation matters. Kyle also gained judicial experience as an intern to the Honorable Patty Shwartz of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, where he conducted legal research, prepared case summaries, and assisted with opinion drafting.
