OVERVIEW

Blaire Eunhae Shin is an associate and member of the Capital Markets practice group. Blaire advises clients on corporate and transactional matters, including investment transactions, fund formation, corporate structuring, project financing, and regulatory compliance. Her experience includes advising startups, venture capital firms, and private equity firms on investment documentation and financial license acquisitions. Her background also includes corporate governance, data privacy, brand acquisitions, and a broad range of commercial agreements.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Blaire served as an investment principal for a Korea-focused investment fund, where she managed sector-agnostic investment opportunities with a particular focus on deep tech and clean tech. Her work included deal sourcing, portfolio management, fundraising, investor relations, and fund operations. Previously, she practiced as an attorney advising corporate clients on corporate and transactional matters. Blaire also held legal and compliance roles within a multinational company, supporting cross-functional business initiatives across the East Asia region, and began her legal career advising government agencies in civil, administrative, and tax-related disputes.
