OVERVIEW

Katelyn Donovan is an associate and member of the Asset Management and Investment Funds practice. Her experience includes counseling global investment managers and institutional clients on all aspects of fund formation and operation of private investment funds across index and active, equity, fixed income, and multi-asset investment strategies. She has advised on fund structuring and product design, co-investments, secondaries transactions and continuation vehicles, as well as related regulatory and compliance matters. Her experience also includes drafting and negotiating fund documentation, including offering memoranda, limited partnership agreements, management agreements, side letters, and subscription materials.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Katelyn served as fund formation counsel for a global investment management company, where she advised on the formation and operation of investment funds, including diligence, securities, tax, ERISA, and bank regulatory considerations.

Previously, Katelyn worked in the asset management and private funds practices of international law firms, where she represented fund sponsors in fund formation, fundraising, ongoing compliance obligations, co-investments, and liquidity solutions. Earlier in her career, she served as an attorney advisor in the Division of Corporation Finance at the US Securities and Exchange Commission and as an Honors Program legal intern in the agency's Division of Enforcement.
