OVERVIEW

Emily (Emmy) Masangcay is an associate in the firm's Commercial Disputes practice group. Emmy has experience negotiating and executing design services and supply agreements, such as framework agreements, SOWs, product schedules, work orders, and purchase commitments, for networking infrastructure. She is also versed in advising procurement and engineering teams on a wide range of legal and business issues throughout the contracts lifecycle, including matters related to confidentiality, liability, indemnification, and continuity of supply. Emmy has also led process improvement initiatives to streamline third-party contracting, reduce legal touch on low-risk and low-spend transactions, standardize contract approval requests, and automate key workflows.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Before joining the firm, Emmy was a contracts manager and was later promoted to senior contracts manager at one of the largest on-demand cloud computing platform companies. There, she created, presented, and published resources for legal and business teams, including trainings, wikis, playbooks, and operating procedures, covering topics such as legal processes, smart risk principles, contract analysis, negotiation fallbacks, and negotiation strategies.
