OVERVIEW

Justin Selbo is an associate in the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation practice group. Justin previously served as a summer associate at the firm, where he assisted the patent litigation team by drafting discovery responses, composing claim charts, preparing outlines for appellate oral arguments, investigating products for infringement, conducting legal research, and writing memos. He also assisted with patent prosecution by performing patentability and clearance searches.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Justin served as a corporate extern at a global manufacturer of industrial sensors, safety systems, and machine vision solutions where he composed a reference table for business teams regarding intellectual property rights associated with the company's products and services. He also conducted and compiled research on legislation affecting DEI initiatives. Earlier in his career, Justin served as a judicial extern with the Honorable Charlene Hatcher in Hennepin County Family Court where he assisted with hearings and trials, and drafted orders outlining judicial decisions.
