OVERVIEW

Michael Carroll is a Partner in the Tax practice at K&L Gates in Sydney. His practice combines deep expertise in Australian State and Territory duty and land tax with complementary federal income tax experience.

Michael advises across the investment lifecycle, from structuring, inbound investment, due diligence and transaction execution through to financing, asset management, restructuring and exit. His advice routinely addresses the intersection of duty, land tax and income tax in complex, multi-jurisdictional transactions.

Real estate is a particular focus, including direct investments, property funds, investment platforms, capital partnerships and joint ventures. His experience also extends to broader corporate M&A, business acquisitions and disposals, corporate restructures and cross-border investments.

Michael's practice is characterised by a strategic and commercially focused approach to complex tax matters, with an emphasis on delivering practical advice that supports clients' commercial and investment objectives.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining K&L Gates, Michael worked as a special counsel in the tax team at a leading Australian independent law firm.
