OVERVIEW

Jordan Knight is an associate in the firm's Asset Management and Investment Funds practice. Jordan's practice focuses primarily on registered alternative funds, including tender offer funds, interval funds and other closed-end structures, where he advises on formation, regulatory compliance and ongoing operational matters. In addition, he represents investment advisers and sponsors in connection with the formation, organization and operation of private investment funds, including funds-of-funds. Jordan also advises clients on derivatives regulation and documentation, including ISDA and MSFTA negotiations and related regulatory protocols.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Jordan was a summer associate in the firm's Boston office in 2017. In addition, he was a compliance intern at a global financial services company.
