OVERVIEW

Michael Thornell is a senior associate in our commercial litigation and dispute resolution team in Sydney with a focus on commercial litigation, complex professional indemnity claims, and insurance coverage. He regularly acts in litigated disputes for insured professionals such as lawyers, accountants, auditors, architects, brokers and engineers.

Michael also has significant experience acting for both insurers and claimants in relation to policy interpretation and disputes, and has acted as coverage counsel in some of Australia's largest securities class actions and regulator enforcement proceedings.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Michael was a senior associate at a global firm focusing on commercial litigation and insurance disputes. In that role, he obtained a broad range of experience, and has appeared in almost every court in the state and federal jurisdictions.
