OVERVIEW

Myla Reizen is a partner in the firm's Miami office. She is a member of the global health care and FDA practice group.

Myla concentrates her practice in health law, representing health systems, hospitals, academic medical centers, home health agencies, skilled nursing facilities, hospices, physician groups, and other health care entities and providers.

Myla focuses her health care practice on government and internal investigations, health care regulatory matters, and compliance. She advises providers on government and qui tam matters ranging from quality of care issues to physician arrangements and coding and billing matters. Myla has been providing a significant amount of information and resources to the nursing home and long term care communities during the pandemic.

Myla has extensive experience developing, implementing, and evaluating compliance programs and negotiating, analyzing, and implementing corporate integrity agreements. Along with compliance, she also has handled complex regulatory and operational matters for providers, such as quality care and fraud and abuse analysis. In addition to her in-depth capabilities on federal issues, Myla has vast experience in complex state regulatory matters. For instance, she has advised on Medicaid managed care arrangements, reimbursement, licensure, fraud and abuse, and innovative and novel state programs.

Myla has substantial in-house experience serving in various in-house roles such as assistant general counsel for a national hospital chain for a number of years. She is also an active member of the Florida Bar and the community. Myla currently serves on the board of Dare To Care, a not for profit organization serving food, clothing and basic needs to the South Florida Community. She currently serves on the board of trustees for Florida Memorial University, the only HBCU in South Florida. She has also held leadership positions on the Florida Bar Health Law Executive Council.

Myla is a frequent presenter in national and state venues on compliance and legal issues. She has been a contributor to a number of national and state publications.
